

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), using the model created in 1987 by the Los Angeles City Fire Department (LAFD), implemented a nationwide Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program in 1993. Since then, CERTs have been established in hundreds of communities throughout the country, and the world.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT TO DO IN AN EMERGENCY?

Just 17.5 hours of CERT Training...and you will!

WHAT IS CERT?

CERT training promotes a partnership between professional emergency services and the people that they serve. The goal is for emergency personnel to train members of neighborhoods, community organizations, and workplaces in basic emergency response skills. Residents who are CERT Trained have proven to enhance the level of preparedness and safety within their community.

If a disastrous event overwhelms or delays the community's professional response capabilities, CERT members can assist themselves, their families and others, by applying the basic response and organizational skills that they learned during training. Following a disaster, these skills can help save and sustain lives until help arrives. CERT skills can be applied to all emergencies...large and small.

The class runs for 2½ hours, one day a week (morning, afternoon or evening) for seven weeks for a total of 17½ hours of training. All CERT Training is free and instructed by a Firefighter from the Los Angeles Fire Department.
